

UNITED STATES ARMY TRAINING AND DOCTRINE COMMAND BAND
700 LEE BOULEVARD
FORT EUSTIS, VIRGINIA 23604-5703

THE UNITED STATES ARMY TRAINING AND DOCTRINE COMMAND BAND

The United States Army Training and Doctrine Command (TRADOC) Band serves as an outreach asset for the United States Army Training and Doctrine Command. Members of the band have passed a highly selective audition, and are among the finest musicians in the Army band program. The majority of band members have studied music at some of the finest colleges, universities, and conservatories of the United States and abroad. The TRADOC Band performs numerous concerts in support of local, regional, and national events, including festivals, inaugurations, and both city and state commemorations. The band's various ensembles frequently travel throughout the country, performing several concert tours each year. In addition to its outreach mission, the band also serves as the primary ceremonial unit of Forts Eustis and Story, supporting numerous military ceremonies, and performing for visiting American and foreign dignitaries.

TRADOC Rock Band, TRADOC Rock

A versatile and energetic ensemble, TRADOC Rock brings contemporary styles such as Classic Rock, Pop and Country music to Soldiers and families. TRADOC Rock entertains audiences of all ages in a wide variety of settings.

